Forest Pooky - We're Just Killing Time Before We Die

Out March 21st / Kicking Records / Little Rocket Records

Forest Pooky has been singing, writing songs and performing for over 15 years. Born from the French punk rock scene, his commitment to music grew during exponentially and to the point where the man, constantly on the road, has been sometimes referred to as a "Dharma Bum". Playing his songs wherever, and to whoever is willing to listen.

Forest has shared the stage with Evan Dando (the Lemonheads), Frank Turner, Joey Cape (Lagwagon), Kepi Ghoulie (Groovie Ghoulies), Peter "Blackie" Black (the Hard Ons)...etc.

This year, with the release of his new EP "We're just killing time before we die" (Kicking Records), he delivers a down to earth, but pretty positive message : If we're just killing time out here, let's have it exciting and enjoy as much as we can.

Putting his bands Sons of Buddha, Supermunk and Napoleon Solo to rest, Forest will be visiting 20 countries on 4 different continents in 6 months spreading and sharing his love for the art.
